AWARD

Messrs. P. Arumugham and E. Chudalayandi employed in the weaving factory belonging to the Kamala Textiles filed a petition under S. 33-A on 21-4-1954 and the same was registered as I. D. No. 14 of 1954 Objections was filed on 13-5-1954. The petitioner examined one witness and filed Exhts. A to G and management examined one witness and filed Exhts. I to V.

During the course of the arguments I understand that the management agreed to take back the workmen when there is available work and it is agreed by the opposite party. There is no evidence of victimization on the part of the management and hence I do not ask the management to reinstate the workmen eventhough there is contravention of the provision of Section 33. Hence I hold that the two workmen should be given work when work is available.

This award comes into effect from the date of publication according to Section 17 of the I. D. Act.

Trivandrum,
16-1-1956.

K. N. KUNJUKRISHNA PILLAI,
Industrial Tribunal.
